Defensive Driving Instructor Course

(POST Control #13870)

This course is designed to train and qualify the students to teach the 24-hour driver training requirements in the 700-hour Basic Academy Curriculum. Students will also be qualified to teach the 8-hour CLEE class available to commissioned Missouri Peace Officers. The Defensive Driving Instructor School consists of 12 hours of classroom topics including Principles of Learning; Training Liability; Fundamentals of Law Enforcement Driving; and Vehicle Dynamics. The final 16 hours of training will involve becoming proficient in conducting driving practical exercises. You will need to use your agency assigned vehicle during the practical exercise.

PRE-REQUISITES:

This course is not intended to teach students defensive driving. Those who register for this course should have strong defensive driving skills prior to registration. Students must be able to perform the practical exercises to receive a certificate of completion.

This training qualifies for twenty-eight (28) hours of Missouri POST Continuing Law Enforcement Education credit in the area(s) of Technical Studies and Skill Development through the Missouri Sheriffs' Association, a POST Licensed provider of continuing education.
