DETENTION TRAINING OFFICER COURSE

POST #17518

February 1, 8, 15, 22, 2025
8:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

PETTIS COUNTY

POST CLEE CREDITS:

- 2 Hours Legal Studies
- 10 Hours Interpersonal Perspective
- 0 Hours Technical Studies

CLASS OVERVIEW

This powerful 32-hour course provides experienced jail staff and supervisors with valuable information and essential resources to perform as a Detention Training Officer. Modeled after a traditional Field Training Officer Program, this course is structured specifically to the jail and/or correctional environment. In addition to a structured classroom presentation and a group discussion, a scenario-based exercise at the end gives participants the opportunity to practice what they learned with the benefit of positive, motivational feedback from the trainers.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Although geared toward custody staff, any experienced law enforcement officer, firefighter, or EMS personnel, as well as any professional with influence over fellow employees, will benefit from this course.

TOPICS INCLUDE

- The History of the Field Training Officer (FTO) program
- Managing Training Liability
- Professional Ethics
- Various Individual Learning Styles
- Daily, Weekly, Monthly Observation Reports
- Performance Improvement & Remedial Training Plans
- Mentoring Troubled Employees
- Techniques for Training and Managing Millennial and Gen Z employees
